

Saturday, June 22, 2024 Class 9:00 am - 11:00 am

Make It and Take It —Painting a Quilt Barn Block

Sue Royer is known for her prize-winning art pieces. Join her Saturday morning for a “Make It and Take It” class. In keeping with the Festival’s 2024 theme of Wild, Wonderful West Virginia, we will be painting Quilt Barn Blocks in the state’s colors. Sue says this class is “No Stress, and only fun is allowed!”

Cost for class materials is $15.00. This includes a 16” x 16” board, paints, tape, and brushes.

Handmade genuine barnwood frames by an artisan frame maker/woodworker will be available for purchase for $25.00 and must be ordered by June 5, 2024. Indicate on the sign-up form if you want the frame, and then pay for your class materials and frame on the day of the class.

What you need to bring to class!

- A stiff plastic card such as a store card or credit card OR a quilting seam roller
- A Hairdryer
- 18” plastic straight-edge ruler such as a “C-Thru” ruler
- We are working with paint, so bring an apron or old shirt to protect your clothing

---

Saturday 1:00 pm—3:00 pm Teachers’ Medley

Emily Prentice		The (Art) of Quilting
Kathryn Prentice		Let’s Texturize
Beverly Javins		Don’t Be Afraid of a Mitered Corner
Sue Royer		Applique’ the Appliquik Way
Arabel Blumling		English Paper Piecing with Fussy Cuts (by a real English lady!)
Vicki Hylton		Legal Considerations for Quilters
Rhonda Braham		How to Freehand Feathers for Beginners

