President's Message

Spring is finally just around the corner and we had been finalizing plans for our April Spring meeting followed by our annual West Virginia Quilt Festival in June.

These events are now cancelled.

Unfortunately, the recently announced national emergency by President Donald Trump and West Virginia state emergency by Governor Jim Justice due to the global novel Coronavirus outbreak has caused the Board to take alternate action. Our decisions were not made lightly, and we understand that everyone may not agree with them. However, we took our actions based on the most recent available information regarding the pandemic.

Our overriding concern is the health and wellbeing of our membership, their loved ones, and the general public, and the preservation of our members' resources in WVQI. While we could have delayed a decision, WVQI would have incurred expenses that could not have been recouped should we have ultimately cancelled, and WVQI would have incurred significant financial losses if we had held the events with low attendance.

It is our expectation that we will be able to hold our Fall meeting and class as planned September 18-19, 2020 in Moundsville, WV. Please mark your calendars and we look forward to seeing everyone there.

We pray that all of our members remain healthy and unscathed by the novel Coronavirus. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions about the Board's actions.

Mary Utt, President

Festival Chair Message

Sadly, the 2020 West Virginia Quilt Festival has been cancelled due to the extraordinary circumstances surrounding the novel Coronavirus outbreak. It is not an action the Board of Directors took lightly, nor was it done without a great deal of soul-searching.

I would like to thank the Festival Committee members and those people who have helped out at past Festivals, putting in many hours and hard work to make sure that WVQI put on a great event. Our main sponsor, Vickie Fler, of the Quilt Shoppe, has always been there for us; not only has she supported us financially, she allows us to use her shop as a storage facility throughout the year. There are our vendors, who show up with all their amazing fabrics and new products. And of course, there is the public, who comes out to see all the beautiful creations from the hands of our membership.

I am hopeful that this pandemic runs its course soon, and that you and your loved ones will be spared the dreadful consequences that so many others across the globe have suffered. With planning, preparedness, and a good bit of luck, we will be able to resume our traditional schedule later on this year. I look forward to seeing all of you, and the work of your hearts and hands at next year's Festival, scheduled for June 17 – 19, 2021.

Respectfully submitted by Joni Hoffman, Festival Chair
